Consignment Agreement

- The Surrey Inc. holds the right to decide which items to accept or decline for consignment. All items must be clean and in good condition. Any item determined to be dirty, defective, unsafe or unmarketable will not be accepted.
- All items (except saddles) will have a 90-day consignment term. Consigned articles are subject to a 25% price reduction if not sold within 60 days from the date of this agreement. After 90 days, the article may be disposed of or donated unless picked up by the Consignor. It is not The Surrey Inc.'s responsibility to notify the Consignor that the consignment time period has expired. It is the sole duty of the Consignor to take back any unsold items at the end of this period at their own expense (including shipping if necessary).
- All saddles will have a 6-month consignment period. If the saddle does not sell in the 6-month term, the Consignor will be notified and expected to pick up the saddle in a timely manner.
- The Surrey Inc. is not responsible for articles left on consignment. The Consignor acknowledges this and hereby releases The Surrey from any possible claims of any nature due to consigning the item.
- The Consignor must be the full, rightful owner of all items he/she is consigning.
- The Consignor will receive 60% of the sale price for items sold by The Surrey unless previously stated otherwise. All sales will be posted on the 15th of the month following the sale. Checks will be mailed to the Consignor on the 20th of the month.
- No consignment articles will be accepted on Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays.
